

I wonder, I wander

By A. C. Zito

Have you ever seen anything so beautiful?

The rainforest

Its trees

Its brilliance

Its majesty

Have you ever noticed the wind how it blows?

The breeze makes me sing

I dance in my lows

Have you ever wanted to cry out into the night?

Why?

Why?

Why?

Why do you make me cry, why do we fight?

Have you ever played games, but maybe they've gone a little too far?

Well, don't you love me anymore?

Don't you care if I fall?

I've wandered these hills

Until I can't wander no more

But still I keep wondering

Until I can't wonder no more
