

Meet the love
Understand the Beast
AC Zito

Meet the Love
Understand the Beast

Meet whoever you like

That will be fine by me

But when you meet me for the first time

It might not always be a sure time

Because you might not always like me

Meet the love
Understand the Beast

See me for the first time as you would like to see me
It IS a first impression so try to bring out something outstanding in me

Don't give me hate
Don't try to negotiate

Our newfound friendship is what binds us
We are humans in a never-ending timeframe

So now that you've met me
Even though you will never have really MET me

Opinionate me for all I care
I am what God created so He must care

Love me or hate me

I will always love you
Because every human is lovely

It is just hard to find the hate
When you don't see the love fully through

So be kind to everyone

I'm my own person
And You're One of US, baby

Because we're humans, and we're outstanding

So meet the love
And just understand
It's not you

When people hate

It's not you

When people miscommunicate

You are perfect
Flatter yourself

For you have to understand someone's love

Before you finally truly meet

Their inner beast

Meet the love
Understand the beast
